Re: Gail Ludwig Kaleda vs.
[REDACTED] Kaleda
Case No. 84 CV 0652

Dear Judge Kainrad:

I am enclosing herewith Order of Withdrawal and Cancellation in the above subject case which is self-explanatory - myself withdrawing as attorney and the Defendant, [REDACTED] Kaleda, desiring to have his Answer and Counterclaim withdrawn or dismissed.

I have discussed this matter with William F. Calhoun, attorney for the Plaintiff, and advised him of my concern regarding this matter.

Mr. Kaleda, in my opinion, does not appear to have all his wits about him. He is under psychiatric care and operating on heavy medication.

I am also enclosing herewith a handwritten statement from Mr. Kaleda wherein he states he wishes to withdraw his Answer and Counterclaim in Case No. 84 CV 0652 for personal reasons - he wishes to remain married to his wife, Gail Kaleda, and that neither his wife nor he wish to contest this matter further.

I do not think this is true that his wife does not wish to contest the matter. His wife insisted upon accompanying him into my office and staying with him during our office conference. I asked if she was going to contest this matter any further and she said it was none of my business.

I ask that you review this matter according to your court procedure whatever it may be before affixing your signature to this Order of Withdrawal and Cancellation of Defendant's Answer and Counterclaim. I have stated all this information directly to Mr. Calhoun and told him I was sending you this letter and I am sending a copy of this letter and all papers directly to Mr. Calhoun this same date.

Very truly yours,
